OBF Safer Passing Bill to be Introduced Sep

Senator Teresa Fedor of Toledo will introduce a bill that would require Ohio motorists to leave three feet of clearance when passing bicyclists into the Ohio Senate on September 28. The bill represents one of six recommendations given to Senator Fedor by OBF Chair Chuck Smith during a May bicycle tour from Toledo to Columbus. The recommendations were approved by the OBF Board during the April meeting. Senator Mark Wagoner (R, 2nd), also of the Toledo Area, joined Senator Fedor and Smith on the May bicycle tour, which concluded on the Statehouse grounds (photo of Smith and Fedor at conclusion of tour on left). Senator Wagoner will co-sponsor the bill. Senators Fedor and Wagoner will appear with Smith in a 10:30 a.m. September 28 news conference to take place on the west lawn of the Statehouse. Our bill already has 17 other Senate co-sponsors, including Senators Capri Cafaro (D, 32nd), Bob Gibbs (R, 22nd), Karen Gillmor (R, 26th), David Goodman (R, 3rd), Jim Hughes (R, 16th), Eric Kearney (D, 9th), Dale Miller (D, 23rd), Ray Miller (D, 15th), Sue Morano, (D, 13th), Thomas Patton (R, 24th), Tom Sawyer (D,
